As a member of the Trademark Department with almost two decades of experience, Ms. Leibowitz is involved in advising and representing clients in connection with their Trademark matters. Her expertise covers all aspects of Trademark law, including the evaluation and clearance of trademarks, trademark prosecution before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, and trademark litigation matters. In addition, Ms. Leibowitz has extensive experience assisting entrepreneurs, start-ups and sole proprietors with their Intellectual Property needs.

Ms. Leibowitz obtained her undergraduate degree in Sociology from the University of Michigan and graduated from Fordham University School of Law. Ms. Leibowitz transitioned into intellectual property while working at a general corporate firm and honed her skills at a boutique intellectual property firm in New York City.

After several years, she opened her own successful intellectual property law practice in Westchester County. This experience enabled her to counsel entrepreneurs and start-ups in all aspects of their business needs. Her experience has enabled her to work with business owners in diverse industries, and across a wide range of goods, products and services.
